Minimal submanifolds and positive curvature

Richard Schoen

Abstract: This talk will survey the status and discuss prospects for the application of minimal submanifold theory to problems involving the study of positively curved manifolds.